

LA SOSTA DI OTTONE III

Levanto (Cinqueterre) – LIGURIA region

Location

A wonderful territory, shaped by the work of man over the centuries, home of a national park, with a crystalline sea that hosts a prestigious protected marine reserve. Countries of culture and ancient crafts, of intense Mediterranean scents, of sensual wines that transport the harshness of the territory to the palate and the sweetness of the nectar. The Cinque Terre are a monument that will remain engraved in the heart of those who visit and stay there.

Cinque Terre is the splendor of the Italian Riviera, a coast line of the Ligurian Riviera located in the province of Spezia, in which there are five villages or, as was formerly said "Terre", that remain miraculously unspoilt:

Monterosso al Mare, Vernazza, Corniglia, Manarola, Riomaggiore. With terraced vineyards, craggy cliffs and panoramic footpaths, they are an ideal destination for walkers, trekkers and those who simply love nature and sea. In 1997 the Cinque Terre area, with its stunning natural landscapes that make it a small corner of paradise, was awarded World Heritage status by UNESCO.

Property

La Sosta di Ottone III is a Small Boutique Hotel with restaurant and a passion for local in the magical landscape of the Cinque Terre region.

Off the beaten track, La Sosta is perched in the hills at the top end of the medieval village of Chiesanuova, 200 meters above sea level, overlooking the Mediterranean Sea and the Levante Valley.

Six rooms, local cuisine & wine, a Sommelier and a Day Designer: experience and enjoy Cinque Terre heritage. Hop into Reception and have a chat with Valentina to design your day based on your interests, mood and weather conditions. Valentina is born and lives in Levante, is passionate about local heritage and speaks English, French and German. A Day Designer: the luxury of deep local knowledge, tips and a good listener to help you design a great day. La Sosta Restaurant offers guests an authentic experience which combines tradition with innovation: the food & wine heritage of the Liguria Region and inspiration from the never ending creativity of the Italian culinary scene. The restaurant is open for both Hotel guests and clients who are not Hotel guests.

The sea and beach of Levante or Monterosso are only about 5/6 kms away (but 200 mt. in altitude) and can be reached in a few minutes by car.

There is a railroad station in both of these towns.

For these reasons we emphasize that the inn is suitable for the discerning active traveler who is fond of nature (with its noises: bells, dogs and people working in the fields), hikes (some of which start quite near the inn), a family atmosphere and a rural respite from the hustle and bustle of city/town life.

It is not suitable, however, for those who travel with numerous or heavy bags, who would prefer a hotel with more in-room services such as a TV or ice maker, who are looking more for town/city conveniences.

Rooms

All rooms are decorated with an appealing blend of antique and “made in Italy” design furnishings and décor with stunning marble or mosaic ensuite bathrooms.

Particular care was taken during the renovation to use local materials and work with local artisans.
