

RELAIS DEL MARO

Borgomaro (Imperia) – LIGURIA region

Location

Liguria is in north-western Italy, bordering with France. The region features impressive mountains and lovely rolling hills, colored by the green Mediterranean turf and overlooking the Ligurian Sea. The two are divided by a high, indented coastline.

Liguria is a multi-faceted sliver of the Peninsula, where differences weave together to create a wide array of things to do and see during a visit here.

Nature, mountains, culture, entertainment and night life: all one has to do is choose.

The waters of this section of the Mediterranean are an enormously important feature of the region, with its characteristic rocky coasts interrupted by small coves, and beaches of fine golden sand.

The Cinque Terre and the Gulf of Poets, the Gulf of Tigullio, Genoa and Paradise Gulf, the Riviera delle Palme and the Riviera dei Fiori make up the famous coast of Liguria which stretches from Ameglia to Ventimiglia, for more than 300 km (186 mi). During an itinerary so spectacular for the beauty of the land and seascapes, we can see the most famous tourist resorts of Liguria: Portofino, Santa Margherita Ligure, Rapallo, Sestri Levante with its enchanting Baia del Silenzio (Silent Bay), and Chiavari.

One after another, generous beaches, minuscule yet gorgeous ports and amazing sceneries for exploring greet visitors, and turn into vivacious centers by night, with plenty of entertainment and shopping on offer. Some of these include: Sanremo, the city of flowers, famous for the Italian Music Festival and for its Casino; the refined towns of Bordighera and Alassio, with its 3 kilometers (almost 2 mi) of fine sand, along with Laigueglia and Varigotti, some of the gems embedded in the Riviera di Ponente.

Then comes Portovenere - facing Palmaria Island - then Lerici with its grand Medieval castle, elegant villas and lush gardens.

The Ligurian Sea also attracts several specimens of sperm whales, orcas and dolphins, who find their natural habitat and live safely in this area known as the “Sanctuary of Cetaceans.”

The extensive woods of Liguria with their centuries-old trees, a true natural legacy, are an excellent alternative to traditional tourism. Immersion into the region's natural environments allows one to get to know and see the places where man, with love and dedication, has managed to cultivate the best possible fruits from this land. Places full of history, culture and traditions, which witness the passage of ancient peoples coming from the sea.

The provinces of the region are: Genoa (the region's capital), Imperia, Savona and La Spezia

Property

An ancient Ligurian town among green and olive trees, where time is slow and the streets smell of nature, between stone and sun. Come and have a chat at the bar, enjoy the laughter of the children in the square and become part of the place: smile, you're at home. You are at Relais del Maro.

The Relais del Maro is a 4 stars Albergo Diffuso consisting of 14 rooms distributed in 3 historic buildings located in the village of Borgomaro, ideal for your holidays just a few kilometres from the Ligurian Sea.

We want to invite you to get to know our valley and spend your holiday in the heart of authentic Liguria by being immersed into the relaxed, slow, typical life of a place where everyone knows each other. On the ground floor of the Casa Madre, there are the Reception – where you will be welcomed and assisted for all your needs – and the breakfast room: it is here that our delicious breakfast with typical Ligurian and km 0 products is served every day and in the afternoon takes place our famous five o'clock tea with homemade cakes and biscuits plus a selection of about 30 different types of pure tea, blends and herbal teas. Every morning our staff places on the table the best regional and homemade products for the breakfast of our guests, selected and prepared with love and experience: our idea is that if the coffee is good, the cake is homemade and the service smiles at you, the day starts well straight away!

In our buffet, you will find typical products from the towns of the Impero Valley, from biscuits, focaccia and pizza by “Zia Bruna” to the homemade specialities that we prepare and bake personally every day, such as bread, cakes and brioches. You can also enjoy a precious selection of products from different Italian regional traditions, such as cheese and cold meats from lower Piedmont and beyond. All the food of our famous breakfast boasts extreme attention to naturalness and authenticity: to start your days in Borgomaro on the right foot!

Finally, there is a wide selection of dishes for celiacs and food intolerants, recipes from the best vegetarian and vegan cuisine and also special kids menus.

Rooms

At the Relais del Maro you can choose between 14 wonderful rooms made with attention to details, each with its own personality that recalls the Borgo Antico and all different in size, colours and furnishings, for a truly unique experience immersed in a fairytale romantic atmosphere in the genuine heart of Liguria. Following the Albergo Diffuso philosophy, the 14 rooms are located in three different historic buildings in Borgomaro: our hallway? The narrow streets of the village.

The Casa del Borgo is located in the hearth of the village, overlooking the main alleyway, in total 90 meters that can be covered on foot. Continuing along the street, after 40 meters you will reach the third building: the Casa del Fienile.
